

And God said,
"Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky (...) God made two great lights—the greater light to govern the day and the lesser light to govern the night.
He also made the stars.

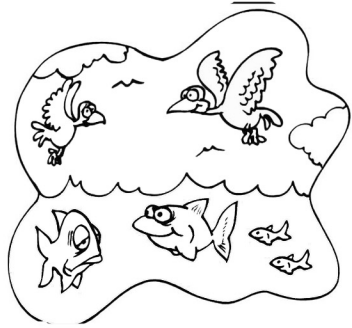

And God said,
"Let the water under the sky be gathered to one place, and let dry ground appear." (...) Let the land
produce vegetation (...)

And God said,
"Let there be an expanse between the waters to separate
water from water."

And God said,
"Let there be light,
and there was light."

And God said,
"Let the land produce living creatures
according to their kinds (...) Then God said,
"Let us make man
in our image,

God saw all that he had made, and it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning
—the sixth day.
